Volltext	As a vehicle owner, you re-register your vehicle to a new address and apply for a new vehicle registration number if you move your residence to another municipality. A remarking (assignment of a new number plate) can be waived if the vehicle is changed within registration areas in which the same distinguishing number plates are used. This only applies to the cities and districts or the regions of Göttingen, Hanover, Oldenburg and Osnabrück. As things stand at present, there are no plans to extend the waiver of relabelling to other areas of approval. The obligation to relabel the vehicle owner in the event of a change of residence to another registration area, which is regulated in the Vehicle Registration Ordinance, was abolished on 1 January 2015. When changing their place of residence within Germany, vehicle owners can now decide for themselves whether they want to continue using the previous number plate or have a new one assigned. It should be noted that the obligation to report the change of residence to the competent authority remains in place and that it is still necessary to amend the registration certificate Part I (vehicle registration document).
