Verfahrensablauf

The assessment is only made upon request. A written application is recommended.

A determination entitles the holder to hold the respective event. If fixed trade fairs, exhibitions or wholesale markets are not or no longer held, the organiser must notify the competent authority immediately in writing.

The determination regulates the subject-matter, place, time and opening hours of the events concerned.

Information on the possibility of scheduling several events at the same time or one event on a permanent basis is available from the competent authority.

As soon as the event has been scheduled, a written decision will be issued. The determination may be subject to conditions.

Bearbeitungsdauer	3 Monat(e) § 6a (2) in conjunction with § 6a (1) of the Industrial Code (GewO)
Frist	The law does not specify an application deadline. However, it is advisable to submit an application in good time (up to six weeks before the start of the event).

Hinweise	In principle, anyone is allowed to participate in a trade fair, exhibition or market. However, as the organiser, you can limit the event to certain groups of providers or visitors or exclude individual interested parties for objectively justified reasons. However, the selection from among the applicants must be based on objective, verifiable selection criteria. This includes criteria such as attractiveness, balance, versatility and novelty of the business operated by the applicant.
Rechtsbehelf	Contradiction
Kurztext	If a trade fair, an exhibition or a wholesale market is organised, the so-called determination is necessary for this, provided that the so-called market privileges are sought.
