Teaser	Do you want to discontinue your business, move to a location that falls under the jurisdiction of a municipality other than the one that was previously responsible, or do you want to change the legal form of your business? Then you must deregister your business.
Volltext	If you wish to discontinue the operation of your business, you are required to deregister your business. The same applies if you move the headquarters of your business or a branch or dependent branch of your business to a new location and this results in the jurisdiction of a different municipality. First, deregister your trade or business at the previous location. Then re-register it at the new location. If you change the legal form of your trade or business, a trade deregistration is also required. First, you must deregister your business under the previous legal form. Then, you re-register your business under the new legal form. If you move the headquarters of your business or a branch office or a dependent branch of your business to a new location without any change in the jurisdiction within the municipality, a business re-registration is sufficient. The deregistration must be carried out by the following persons or their authorized representatives: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In the case of sole traders, by the trader himself/herself, • in the case of corporations (e.g. GmbH, AG) by the legal representatives. In the case of partnerships (e.g. OHG, KG,
