Volltext	The broadcasting fee is levied in the private sector per dwelling and does not depend on the type and number of radio sets. The rule is: one apartment – one contribution. The broadcasting fee covers all • radios, • Smartphones and • Computer inside your home and in the private cars of all occupants. If a resident pays the broadcasting fee, this covers the obligation to pay the fee for all persons living in the apartment. This rule shall apply to: • Families • Shared flats • Unmarried couples Are you a student living in a student dormitory? Here it depends on the exact spatial conditions on site. You have to pay a broadcasting fee if you enter your room directly through a private entrance • from the stairwell or • an anteroom or • can be entered from the outside. You do not have to pay a contribution if you can only enter your room via another apartment. Hint: For a second home you have to pay an additional broadcasting fee. People with disabilities and recipients of state benefits
