received at least four points in each of at least three supervised assignments.

The oral examination consists of a ten-minute presentation, a five-minute in-depth discussion and an examination interview in three sections. Each section relates to a compulsory subject. The oral examination should last approximately 45 minutes. Four individual marks are awarded for the oral examination.

Following the oral examination, the examination board discusses the assessment and informs the candidate of the result with the final score from the written and oral examination. The certificate for the second state examination in law provides information on passing the examination and the final score.
