Teaser	If you wish to hold an auction, you must notify us in writing.
Volltext	The auctioneer must notify the competent authority of each auction two weeks before the planned auction date. If you are auctioning unused goods, one of the following exceptions must apply: • The goods come from an estate, an insolvency estate or a business closure or • the goods are sold by public auction on the basis of statutory provisions (Section 383 (2) of the German Civil Code - BGB). No notification is required for the auction of agricultural inventory, agricultural and forestry products or livestock.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• Declaration that only used goods are to be auctioned, evidence if necessary • If applicable, license certificate for the auctioneer trade pursuant to Section 34 b (1) of the Trade, Commerce and Industry Regulation Act, if this is not already available • For unused goods: proof of public appointment as auctioneer, if this is not already available; the reason for the auction and the names/addresses of the parties commissioning the auction; assurance that the auction is not related to a sales event in terms of space or time. Exception: It is a clearance sale due to the closure of a business.

Verfahrensablauf	The notification must be submitted in writing or electronically to the district administrative authority responsible for the auction location. The following information and documents must be submitted: • Details of the place and time of the auction, • Description of the type of goods, • Declaration that only used goods are to be auctioned. If there are any doubts about this, you may be asked to provide appropriate evidence. • License certificate for the auctioneer trade pursuant to Section 34 b (1) of the Trade, Commerce and Industry Regulation Act, if not already available. • Indication of the location of the auctioned property up to the day of the auction, • Indication of the viewing times. The following additional information or documents are required for the auction of unused items: • If it is a public auction: Proof of public appointment as auctioneer (Section 383 (3) of the German Civil Code - BGB). • The reason for the auction and the names and addresses of the clients, • Assurance that the auction is not connected in time or space with another sales event. Exception: It is a clearance sale due to the closure of a business.
Bearbeitungsdauer
Frist	The notification must be made no later than 14 days before the auction date. The date of receipt of your auction notice is decisive for compliance with this deadline. In exceptional cases, particularly in the case of perishable auction goods, the authority may shorten the deadline upon request.
