Erforderliche Unterlagen	• Proof of costs
Voraussetzungen	The employees designated for the tasks of the tactical-technical operations centers for digital radio at the integrated control center must have the necessary specialist knowledge. To this end, successful participation in the courses provided for by the DigiNet project group in the training framework concept (currently: TETRA system course and user management course) must be proven by means of a certificate of attendance. Participation in the required courses can also take place shortly after the start of employment. The principle of efficiency and economy must be observed when selecting personnel. Furthermore, funding will only be granted if the operator of the integrated control center declares in the funding application (annex) that the integrated control center will participate in digital BOS radio by wire in accordance with the concept "Technical connection of integrated control centers" of the DigiNet project group and that the conditions for participation and use will be observed.
Kosten	none
Verfahrensablauf	The application (see form under "Forms") must be submitted in a single copy by the beneficiary directly to the responsible government (granting authority). The government will decide on the application.
Bearbeitungsdauer	about two weeks
Frist	The personnel costs are eligible for funding at the earliest eight months before the month in which the so-called "extended trial operation" is to begin in the respective rescue service area according to the migration plan adopted by the Bavarian Digital Radio Steering Committee.
