Handlungsgrundlage
Teaser	Music schools can be public institutions run by municipalities that aim to provide music education for children and young people on a broad basis. Registration is required for participation in lessons.
Volltext	Music schools can familiarize children with the basic elements of music from an early age, recognize and promote musical talents at an early age and lead them to participate in musical life through gradual, structured lessons. The use of a community or municipal music school is governed by the relevant statutes. Here you will find, for example, the regulations on registration and deregistration, services and lesson times. You can obtain information about the lessons offered by the music school in your municipality either directly from the music school or - if available - via the music school's website. You can also register your child for lessons here.
