Volltext	Anyone with German citizenship can be issued a passport, regardless of their age. If you want to travel beyond the borders of the European Union, you will need a valid passport. You must apply for one at the relevant authority. The regular passport has 32 pages. If you travel frequently, you can apply for a 48-page passport. If you need a passport urgently, you can apply for an express passport. Under the following conditions, the passport loses its validity and must be reapplied for travel outside the European Union: Expiry of validity (you cannot update your passport or extend
