Hinweise	As a landlord, you can have the responsible authority officially deregister people who no longer live in your apartment. The responsible authority will check the actual living conditions before deregistering. The deregistration of deceased persons is arranged by the registry office. If you deregister your secondary residence in Hamburg, you must also deregister it from the second home tax. A secondary residence in Hamburg can also be deregistered at the main residence. A secondary residence abroad can be deregistered in Hamburg, provided the main residence is registered in Hamburg. A person who is not registered in Hamburg can obtain a registration certificate with the date of moving out of their Hamburg apartment. Cost: 14 euros. The official registration confirmation contains the following information: Last name, first name, if applicable, stage name or doctoral degree birth date move-in or move-out date date of registration or deregistration Indication of whether it is a sole residence, a main residence or a secondary residence
