Teaser	Would you like to collect usable waste, so-called recyclables, from private households for non-profit or commercial purposes? Then you must report this to the responsible authority before starting your collection.
Volltext	Recyclable materials from private households must be handed over. This means that they are generally left to the public waste disposal providers. The commercial or non-profit collection of recyclable materials from private households (recyclable waste) is only permitted if this has been reported to the responsible authority in advance. If you want to carry out a non-profit or commercial collection of recyclable waste, so-called recyclables from private households, you must report the collection to the responsible authority in advance. For example, you have to advertise street collections or container collections of textiles and shoes, but also points of purchase of waste paper and other collections. The responsible authority can set a time limit, impose conditions or prohibit your collection.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	- Basic data of the notification: address, contact details, responsible person(s), business registration (date, registration number), commercial register number (if available), copy of the notification according to Section 53 KrWG, certification as a specialist waste disposal

Hinweise	Mixed waste from private households may not be collected commercially or for non-profit purposes (e.g. bulky waste). Electronic waste (defective old electrical devices) must be returned to the public waste disposal agency or to the dealers who are obliged to take it back. If there are subsequent changes to the information provided in your advertisement, you must also notify the responsible authority of these changes 3 months in advance. If you do not display your non-profit or commercial collection, do not display it correctly or do not display it on time, you are committing an administrative offense. This can be punished with a fine of up to EUR 10,000.
