Volltext	Waste that is illegally dumped in the open countryside, in forests or along streams and in public places outside of the designated waste containers is referred to as "wild rubbish". This can be, for example, household and bulky waste, building rubble, construction site waste, car wrecks, but also excess excavated soil (loose and solid rock that is dug up or removed during construction work). It is also "wild rubbish" if the rubbish has been covered with earth. If you want to report "wild rubbish", contact the Hamburg city cleaning department. The dumping of "wild rubbish" is prohibited and constitutes an administrative offence. It can be fined. If the person responsible for the "wild rubbish" can be determined, the resulting disposal costs will be charged to them.
