and seafarers Anyone moving onto an inland waterway vessel registered in a ship register in the country must register with the registration authority of the place where the vessel's home port is located. On a sea-going vessel entitled to fly the federal flag, the shipowner registers the person at his or her registered office. Registration and deregistration can also be carried out at another registration authority or at the water police, which will forward the data to the responsible registration authority. responsible: Hamburg Local Service - Residents' Affairs Department Hamburg-Mitte
