Hinweise

With a birth certificate you can prove the birth of a person, their first and last names as well as information about their parents. You cannot apply for a birth certificate by telephone. If you do not know the location of the civilly registered event, please write to the General Register of Hamburg's Civil Registry Offices (see links). There you can find out which Hamburg Civil Registry Office recorded the civil status event. For civil status events (birth, marriage, death) that were certified in a Hamburg registry office from 2009 onwards, further certificates can be issued in all Hamburg registry offices. These certificates, which are issued by a registry office other than the one that issued the certificate, are provided with the addition "Certificate in accordance with Section 67 Paragraph 3 of the Civil Status Act". With this addition, documents are not recognized abroad, for example birth certificates for entry into the USA. These must be issued by the registry office with original jurisdiction. For birth certificates from births that occurred more than 110 years ago, please contact the Hamburg State Archives (see links). You can obtain an apostille from the Ministry of the Interior and Sport, Office for Migration.

Rechtsbehelf

If the registry office refuses to issue a certificate, you can submit an application for a court order to the Hamburg District Court, Sievekingplatz 1, 20355 Hamburg.
