Teaser	To transport a corpse to a location outside Hamburg, you must apply for a corpse pass under certain conditions.
Volltext	If you want to transport a deceased person across the border of a federal state or the national border of Germany to another location, you will need a corpse passport if the destination country or a country you are driving through requires a corpse passport. The corpse passport confirms the identity of the deceased person. You must apply for the corpse passport at the responsible authority.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	Death certificate or certificate of deferral of the issuance of a death certificate Confidential part of the death certificate in the original (page 2) Copy of the Non-Confidential Part of the Death Certificate (Page 1) Declaration of coffining (in exceptional cases this can be filled out on site when submitting the application) death notice In case of unnatural cause of death, additionally: clearance certificate from the State Criminal Police Office
Voraussetzungen	There are no health concerns regarding the transfer
Kosten	28.00 euros
Verfahrensablauf	You submit your application together with the necessary documents in person to the responsible authority. The responsible authority will examine your application and, if necessary, request any necessary documents or information from you. If all factual and legal requirements are met, the corpse certificate will be issued to you.
