Teaser	If it subsequently turns out that the person documented in the certificate of inheritance is not the real heir, the certificate of inheritance must be withdrawn.
Volltext	If the probate court determines that the person listed in the certificate of inheritance is not the true heir, the probate court must revoke the certificate of inheritance ex officio. The certificate of inheritance then becomes invalid. The incorrect heirs are no longer allowed to dispose of the estate. The true heir can also request the revocation of the certificate of inheritance.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	The procedure is carried out ex officio by the probate court. If you apply for such a procedure, the following documents are helpful: Your identity card or passport The family register for documenting kinship Information on whether there is a lawsuit regarding your inheritance rights Names and addresses of co-heirs Evidence of the reason why certain persons who would actually inherit are no longer heirs, for example their death certificates, declarations of renunciation or waiver of inheritance If applicable, wills or inheritance contracts The marital property regime (for married couples) or the asset status (for registered civil partnerships) Furthermore, everything that proves the inaccuracy of the certificate of inheritance must be submitted.
Voraussetzungen	There is a sole inheritance certificate and this identifies a person as heir who is not an heir.
Kosten	The amount of the costs is determined by the value of the estate at the time of the inheritance.
