Handlungsgrundlage	§ 3 Guardians and Caregivers Remuneration Act (VBVG) Hourly rate of the professional guardian §§1808, 1878 German Civil Code (BGB) Flat rate for voluntary guardians
Teaser	If you manage a guardianship professionally, you can demand remuneration for it. For guardianships managed on a voluntary basis, this is only possible under certain conditions.
Volltext	The fee is 23 euros per hour. If the guardian has special knowledge that can be used to manage the guardianship, the hourly rate increases to 29.50 euros if his knowledge has been acquired through a completed apprenticeship or comparable completed training; to 39 euros if his knowledge has been acquired through completed training at a university or through comparable completed training. Any sales tax incurred on the remuneration will be reimbursed additionally. If the particular difficulty of the guardianship matters justifies this in exceptional circumstances, the family court may grant a higher hourly rate than the stipulated rate. This does not apply if the ward is destitute.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	Informal application for compensation receipts
Voraussetzungen	In the case of professionally managed guardianships, remuneration can be claimed in accordance with the Guardians and Caregivers Remuneration Act. In the case of voluntary guardianships, a flat-rate expense allowance or reimbursement of expenses required to manage the guardianship may be required.
