Verfahrensablauf

- It is best to contact the relevant office in advance to ask for the documents you need.
- You submit your application in writing using the form provided or by using the online service. You can send the form by mail to the housing allowance office responsible for you or hand it in personally.
- The authority will examine your application and send you a decision.
- If the housing allowance is approved, it is usually granted for 12 months.

Bearbeitungsdauer

A decision on the application will be made immediately. The processing time depends, among other things, on the completeness of your information and the submission of the evidence required for processing the application. Longer processing times are not at your expense: the entitlement to housing allowance is checked from the month in which the application is submitted. If you are already entitled to housing benefit, you will not lose any housing benefit.

Frist

You submit the application no later than the last day of the month from which you wish to apply for housing allowance. As a rule, you will receive the housing allowance from the first of the month in which your application was submitted to the housing allowance office.

Hinweise

There is the following information:

In order to prevent or detect the unlawful claiming of housing allowance, the housing allowance authority may regularly check the details of all household members by comparing data - also in automated form - in particular with the data office of the pension insurance.

For example, it is allowed to compare

- whether Bürgergeld (formerly Arbeitslosengeld II) is being paid during the period in which the housing allowance is being received,
- whether employment subject to compulsory insurance or marginal employment exists
- or the amount of investment income for which an exemption order has been issued.

It is also possible to compare the registration addresses, housing status and dates of change of address with the registration office. It is also possible to call up accounts at the Federal Central Tax Office. Suspected cases of fraud are always reported to the public prosecutor's office.

Through these checks, the housing allowance authority can determine, for example,

- whether housing benefit is being received more than once,
- whether transfer payments leading to exclusion from housing benefit are being received at the same time,
- whether the information provided in the housing benefit application is correct income from gainful employment, income from one or more pensions, income from capital gains (interest or dividends),
