Teaser	If you no longer have your registration certificate Part I or it is no longer legible, you must apply for a replacement document.
Volltext	You may only use a vehicle subject to registration on public roads if it has been registered by the responsible registration authority. The registration certificate part I (ZB I), the former vehicle registration document, is proof of registration. As the driver of a vehicle, you must therefore always carry this with you when driving. You must apply for a replacement document for the registration certificate Part I (ZB I) in the event of • Loss • theft • illegibility If the registration certificate Part I (ZB I) has been stolen, you must report this to the police.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• in case of representation with written power of attorney Additionally: identity card or passport of the authorized person • Registration certificate part II or old vehicle registration document

Modul
Sachverhalt

- if necessary, additional confirmation from the police of the theft report
- valid identity card or passport
- valid test report on a general inspection e.g. TÜV, DEKRA, GTÜ, KÜS, GTS, FSP
- if registered to companies additionally: - Current and valid business registration and, if available, current and valid excerpt from the commercial register (also as a copy) - Power of attorney, if the person authorized to dispose does not personally submit the application on site
- For minors: Declaration of consent and identification documents of the legal guardians

Voraussetzungen

You have lost your registration certificate part I (ZB I), it has been stolen or is no longer legible.

Kosten

Exhibition ZB I: 11,20 EUR. Exhibition ZB I and ZB II: 21.60 EUR.

Verfahrensablauf

- You must submit an application for the issue of a registration certificate Part I (ZB I). Either at the registration authority that issued the license plate number or at a registration authority at the location of the vehicle.
- This can be done either by the person to whom the vehicle is registered or by a representative with a written power of attorney.
- You can apply for the registration certificate part I (ZB I) in person on site or via the online service.

Online application:

- The online service guides you through the application step by step.
- You can submit the required documents digitally. You can find the online service under "Forms".
- You will receive the ZB I by post.

Apply in person on site:

- You need an appointment to apply for the registration certificate part I (ZB I) in person on site.
- You can arrange the appointment online or by telephone.

Modul
Sachverhalt

- Bring all the required documents with you to the appointment.
- The new registration certificate Part I (ZB I) will be issued immediately.

Please note:

- If a vehicle registration certificate was still issued for the vehicle, a registration certificate part I (ZB I) will now be issued as a replacement.
- A new registration certificate Part I (ZB I) - formerly the vehicle registration document - and an old vehicle registration document - now registration certificate Part II (ZB II) - may not be issued at the same time.
- So if you still have an old vehicle registration certificate, a new registration certificate Part II (ZB II) must also be issued.
- The old vehicle registration certificates were issued until the end of 2004.
- The number of the new registration certificate Part II (ZB II) will then be entered in your new registration certificate Part I (ZB I).

Bearbeitungsdauer

The online application is processed within three working days. The ZB I is issued immediately upon application on site.

Frist

A new ZB I must be applied for immediately.
