education

After a successful application, the student is first admitted and then hired. As a rule, both are followed by an appointment as a civil servant on a revocable basis. The preparatory service lasts 18 months. The training takes place in a training school and a study seminar assigned to you.

Under certain conditions, it is also possible to complete the preparatory service part-time.

The preparatory service is considered to be completed when you pass the state examination for the respective teaching post.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

Voraussetzungen

The prerequisite for admission to the preparatory service for a teaching position at public schools is, in principle, proof of successfully completed teacher training studies (Master of Education or First State Examination).

Verfahrensablauf

After successfully completing the teacher training program (1st phase), you must complete a preparatory service (2nd phase) in order to obtain the qualification for a teaching position at schools in Bremen.

The Master's certificate or a certificate with the final overall grade can be submitted later in each case. Please note the current deadlines for this on the LIS homepage.

Information on the application procedure for the preparatory service can be found on the LIS website under "Further information".

After a successful application, you will be appointed as a civil servant on a revocable basis, provided you meet the formal requirements (citizenship/age limit 45 years at the time of recruitment). Alternatively, you will be hired as a trainee under public law.
